Further from the Upper Willamette.

The following news additional to that we have already published, we copy from the Corvallis [illegible]:

"The country between Irwin's Butte and Eugene City is almost [illegible] forty or forty miles [illegible] one [illegible] here and [illegible] who [illegible] a patch of timber [illegible] of the [illegible] an oasis in a desert. The Willamette [illegible] Muddy (in Benton county) were [illegible] and [illegible] the appearance of a vast lake [illegible] extending far over into Linn county [illegible] the foot hills [illegible] west. Several bridges in Benton county have [illegible] away. [illegible] the fine new bridge [illegible] this place sharing in the general disaster. It was carried [illegible] on Monday with Mr. D[illegible] attempting to save it by effecting a landing below town, but he failed and was taken off by a party who went to his relief with a skiff. We have heard of farms between the Long Tom and the Willamette having been swept as clean of improvements as they were before a blow of an ax had been struck at them. The drowning of stock, the carrying away of improvements, the loss of wheat and pork in storehouses and in barns along the river's course have been immense. Hundreds of sheep, hogs and valuable horses have been lost. Dead stock are found everywhere south of this city jammed in among the drifts.

A Mr. Garner, a saloon keeper of this town, was drowned by the upsetting of a boat, while attempting to save others lives.

From Linn County we understand that Harrisburg and Brownsville have been under water. Eugene City was, we understand, partially covered, but we believe the damage to property was not great. Peoria in Linn county was high and dry above the water."

The Democrat says the loss of property at Albany was equal to $80,000.

No More Passes for Crinoline.—The New Bedford Mercury, describing a visit to the President, says: "As our friend sat awaiting his turn to give Abraham's hand an unselfish shake, two ladies were petitioning this father of the faithful with terrible importunity. At length said the President, 'Ladies, I may as well settle this matter at once; I shall grant you no more passes to go beyond our lines with information to the enemy.' Whereupon the two women sailed out of the room with the most ferocious figure heads."

Regiment in Washington Territory.—It is stated that Col. Justus Steinberger, who arrived in San Francisco by the last steamer from the East, has authority to raise a regiment of infantry for Washington Territory. He is empowered to open recruiting offices in California, Oregon and Washington Territory, and to appoint his own officers. When the regiment is organized, he is to report for orders to General Wright commanding this Department. This regiment is aside from the cavalry regiment to be raised in Oregon by Colonel Cornelius.—S. F. Herald.

Dr. Gwin.—A correspondent writing from Panama says: "I am informed by Senor de Sal[illegible] [of Panama] that the first question Dr. Gwin asked him was whether Mason and Slidell had arrived at Cuba." From this it is surmised that he was in the secrets of the Confederate Government.

Military.—C. S. Drew, who arrived here on the steamer Golden Gate yesterday, we are informed holds a Major's commission in the regiment of volunteer cavalry to be raised in Oregon. Major Drew is well known in Oregon in connection with the Indian war of 1855–6 in that State. J. S. Rinearson, of Oregon City, will be junior Major of the regiment.—S. F. Herald.

It is rumored that Thomas Francis Meagher, who is now raising an Irish Brigade in New York, will be commissioned brigadier general upon the [illegible] by Hon. James Shields on account of his health.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 16, 1861.

The War Motto of the Advertiser;

"The Union as our Fathers made it, One and Inseparable."

No sheet could place at its mast-head a better War motto than the Advertiser; and when we first read it in Monday's paper (of last week), we fully expected that it had changed its editor and character. But an editorial in the same number argues at length, that "the popular voices are opposed to the war." And he proceeds to prove his assertion by stating that the majority of the soldiers fighting in the war are of the democratic party! Certainly so long as he asserts this a majority of the troops in the field are opposed in politics to the administration, this, if true, is only demonstrating the overwhelming popularity of the war,—that it is no party war. Indeed it was commenced, and is conducted and carried on without reference to party to party antecedents or purposes. Gen. Dix and Mr. Holt have each said that if the attack on Fort Sumter had been made before the 4th March, the late administration would have urged war as promptly as the present has done.

Prior to the war the editor of the Advertiser preached the sinking of party. But the instant—by the act of the Confederates—the war opens, and when every impulse of patriotism demands the laying aside of party shibboleths, he can find no employment so pleasant as reviving old party feuds to weaken the hands of the government.—He chooses that inopportune moment to revive old party cries and disinter every buried weapon of vindictive controversy. No doubt to make political capital was his purpose.—But there must have come a "change over the spirit of his dream," or he is obeying "the instructions he received from the mouth of the river." In claiming, as he does, that a majority of the soldiers fighting in this war are of his party, he evinces a desire not only to display a war motto, but also to belong to a war party, and to try and get a seat on the war platform.

Breckinridge and Stark.

Like Benedict Arnold, after his treason, J. C. Breckinridge, sent back an address to the people. Breckinridge says: "I exchange with proud satisfaction, a term of six years in the Senate of the United States for the musket of a soldier." Breckinridge is just where he ought to have been six months ago. He is quoted by the Advertiser as one of the Simon pure democracy of the day. Breckinridge in his address, reviews the events of the last twelve months, and concludes by declaring that

"There is no longer a Senate of the United States within the meaning and spirit of the Constitution—the United States no longer exists—the Union is dissolved."

If this is not the very language it is the very sentiments—that Benj. Stark has been in the habit of declaring about the town of Portland. If Breckinridge is a traitor—is not Benjamin Stark also?

EASTWARD BOUND.—Among the passengers by the steamer this morning will be Hon. Benjamin Stark, by appointment United States Senator from Oregon. We are assured that Mr. Stark will co-operate with the Pacific delegation in the Senate in all things for the welfare of the country and the good of the Pacific coast.—S. F. Herald.

Wouldn't wonder if Stark should sell out his secession friends on this coast. It is about time that the Advertiser should have a second letter from him.

GEN. SCOTT'S ESTATE SEQUESTERED.—The Washington Star states that shortly before his retirement, Gen. Scott obtained positive information that his entire estate, all of which is situated in Virginia, had been seized and sequestered by the rebel government.

Washington Territory.

From our Correspondent.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 8, 1861.

The Council convened on Monday, Dec. 2d. Present attending: Messrs. Burbanks, of Cowlitz, Biles of Thurston, Wooster of King and Kitsap, and Shaw, of Whatcom Island and Snohomish.

In town but lodging: Paul K. Hubbs of Port Townsend, the correspondent of the Portland Advertiser, and Frank Clark of Steilacoom. Mr. Burbanks is temporary President, and as there is no quorum they have met from day to day, and adjourned, without permanently organizing.

House of Representatives.—Of this body by the arrival last night of Miles S. Griswold of Pacific, and this morning of E. D. Warbass of San Juan, there are eighteen members present, as follows: Messrs. Lock McLean, Rutts and Yantis of Thurston; Wilson of Sawamish, Suttle of Pierce, John Denny and Hinckley of King, Lowland and Williamson, of Kitsap, Page of Jefferson, Morton of Clallam, Holbrook of Island, Warbass of Whatcom, Taylor, of Chehalis, Griswold of Pacific, Urquhart of Lewis and Ferguson of Skamania. The republicans in Italics.

The House has sat daily since Monday last, without a quorum, with Mr. Ferguson as Speaker pro tem.

It is thought there will be an organization to-morrow.

The Supreme Court met here last Monday Hon. C. C. Hewitt, Chief Justice presiding, and present Associate Justices Oliphant and Wyche:

After a consultation of that day adjourned until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. On that morning A. J. Lawrence, Esq., of Vancouver, objected to the court being opened by the crier, addressing them as Judges of the various districts, and protesting against a meeting as a Supreme Court at this place, it not being the legal seat of government. The court, however, was called, when, on motion of Elwood Evans, Esq., A. J. Lawrence, Esq. was admitted to practice and sworn as a counsellor of the Supreme Court. Mr. Lawrence then moved that the Court delay further proceedings until the arrival of S. Garfield, Esq. of counsel for the claims of Vancouver as the seat of government. A general expression of the bar on the adjournment was invited, and the Court adjourned till Thursday morning.

The first case on the docket was called Thursday, and it proved to be the capital case: considerable sparring here arose in consequence of Hon. F. A. Chenoweth, ex-judge of the Supreme Court, and late prosecuting attorney of 3d district, who tried the case below, pleading to the jurisdiction; and associating with him the arguments of the plea, the counsel of record for plaintiff in error.—The prosecuting attorney of the second district, finally appeared and claimed his right under our law to prosecute the pleas of the territory, and associated with him ex-chief justice Lander, who at once withdrew the plea to the jurisdiction, and the case then went to the foot of the list.

The next case was that of Martin Randolph plaintiff in error, vs. Muyer & Co. defts. in error,—in which Evans was attorney for plaintiff, and Messrs. Garfield and Denison were for defts. Mr. Garfield renewed his plea to the jurisdiction of the court—Evans demurred; but the court declined to entertain the demurrer, which would have secured to the Olympia counsel, the opening and close, which both sides were struggling for. On Thursday afternoon the discussion opened in earnest. Col. Hubbs and Mr. Lawrence occupied the day in opening for Vancouver.—Evans followed for Olympia the next morning, followed by Chenoweth for Vancouver who in turn was succeeded by Anderson and M'Gilvery for Olympia. Lander then closed for Olympia in a speech of five hours, replete with learning and full of the history of legislation, parliamentary and constitutional law. Garfield closed the argument in a three hour's speech for Vancouver at 8 o'clock P. M. on Saturday. His speech was very ingenious and did him infinite credit. Court then adjourned until 2 o'clock on Monday,—when it is supposed their decision will be given.

Our new Supreme Court are winning golden opinions, for their conduct on the bench their courtesy and attention to counsel, and their patience in the investigation of subjects brought before them.

QUIS NUNC.

From our Correspondent.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 9th, 1861.

At 2½ P. M. to-day the Supreme Court of the Territory rendered their decision that Olympia is the seat of government of Washington Territory, and that the act locating the capital at Vancouver was void, because it possessed no enacting clause.

This was the opinion of Chief Justice Hewitt and Judge Oliphant, delivered by the former—Associate Justice Wyche dissenting. It is understood that the Judges will place their opinions on file, though they hereby announced to-day the points held.

Justice Wyche remarked, in dissenting from his brethren, that he entertained very serious doubts as to the validity of a bill without an enacting clause. The current of authority and unbroken custom for ages had seemed to render it necessary. But was it not a form sanctioned and adhered to, because of its antiquity? and not because it was merely a member of a statute, save when necessary by force of constitutional provision. Reason seemed to teach that a law should not be set aside and declared void, when courts could clearly and without doubt, ascertain the legislative will, and could not hastily conclude himself in declaring as an essential of a law, what was a form, although that form had been so long deemed necessary. He was reminded also by our code, by the spirit of the age, by the history of the law, that we were gradually growing practical, seeking substance and substantial justice, rather than technicality, however sustained by musty precedent. He admitted that the authorities seemed to render necessary in every Law description of the authority, as also its assertion by the law-making power, but yet as there was evidence here satisfying any mind that the Legislature had passed the law in question and the meaning and intention could be ascertained by the statute itself, he preferred to hold it valid, rather than declare an act of the Legislature null and void. The judge displayed much ability and research, and we regret this meagre notice will not do him justice.

Associate Justice Oliphant took strong grounds, that an enacting clause was essential to the validity of a law; he had also been influenced in forming his opinion by the action of the Legislature in requesting a vote of the people; that expression being given on such an invitation was entitled to the respect of any Court. He also found the title of this bill, and its first section sought to permanently establish the Seat of Government. This transcended their powers, and was in derogation of the organic act by which the Legislature might at any time change such Seat of Government; and the objection to the law was that it had no date. It was agreed by all that the journals showed it passed December 11th, 1860, and that it either went into effect on that day, or on the first day of the session. Now, that being the case, the last Supreme Court had rendered judgments, made decrees, and performed business, not at the Seat of Government, if this law was valid. To decide such judgments valid now, and overthrow these decrees, would be the cause of serious evil.

On the filing of these opinions, I shall endeavor to send you copies. The question was a novel one, discussed lengthily, and is certainly full of interest.

Immediately after the decision, a quorum appeared in each house, committees of credentials were appointed, and the permanent organization will be effected to-morrow.

QUID NUNC.

From our Correspondent.

OLYMPIA Dec. 11, 1861.

Both branches of the Legislature have adjourned until Monday next, to give time and opportunity to the members who stopped at Vancouver to participate in the organization. A good feeling appears to exist, and all discountenanced the idea of taking an advantage of the absentees. There is much important legislation needed, and it is hoped when the assembled wisdom shall convene, that they will go to work in earnest.

The Supreme Court sits daily, from ten o'clock till four, and has enough to occupy it another fortnight.

The roads between here and the Columbia are said to be in horrid condition. And you undoubtedly will have heard, that Port Townsend has been over-flowed for some days. It still rains, on slight notice, and apparently without any effort. We have had no mail south of Monticello since Sunday night.

QUID NUNC.

SPEAKS OUT!—Sir Lytton Bulwer speaks the sentiments of the aristocracy of England, when he says:

"A war for the dissolution of the Union, like all other wars, is to be regretted; but the dissolution of itself is beneficial to the world. America was becoming too strong, so strong as to menace Europe, so vast that, like Rome, she must perish under the speed of her own dominion. Separation—not into two, but into three or four commonwealths—would relieve the world of fear, while the action of emulation and rivalry between one free State and another, speaking the same language and enjoying that educated culture which inspires an affection for all that enlightens and exalts humanity, will produce the same effects upon art and commerce and the improvements in practical government, which the same kind of competition produced in the old commonwealth of Greece."

The masses in England do not hold these views. They like to see the United States strong—able to stand up for her own rights against the despotisms of the world. If Sir Lytton Bulwer had been a resident of this country, he would have been a flaming secessionist.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—The evening papers of yesterday published telegraphic dispatches from Los Angeles announcing the arrest of Dan. Showalter and seventeen other Californians at Camp Wright, near Warner's Ranch, on a charge of treason. It is well known that for a long time past, companies of men have been leaving both by the southern and northern overland route with the intention of joining the rebels, and although they deserved punishment, it has been thought by many good citizens that their absence was better than their presence in the State under any circumstances. It now appears that orders have been received to put an end to the emigration of disloyal men, and in arresting Showalter and his party there is no doubt that Major Riggs acted in obedience to special instructions which had been sent to him. The arrests, we suppose, will induce serious reflections in the minds of a great many men who have opposed the coercion." Reports have reached the Los Angeles Star, that there are some one hundred more persons who are preparing to emigrate.—S. F. Herald.

The fellows arrested are members of the party in California which the Advertiser claims as Democratic.

The Advertiser does not express its dissent to the declaration of the Victoria Colonist, that in case of war between the United States and England, the Secessionists of Oregon would fight on the side of the British.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

THE MAILS.—Mr. George Thomas, the superintendent of the Oregon and California Stage Company for the Oregon route, arrived in town Saturday last on the little steamer St. Clair, with a considerable number of mail matter which had accumulated at the different stations during the late flood. Mr. Thomas informs us that he has made ample arrangements with the steamboats running on the Willamette river to carry the mails while the roads are impassable for stages, and that the Company themselves are to some extent removing many of the bridges destroyed.

AUSTRALIAN ETHIOPIAN.—One of those irrepressible minstrels, whose complexion burnt in couldn't darken, gave an entertainment at the Metropolis Hall, on Saturday night. The performance consisted of a series of Jim Crow "Virginny back-steps," readings(?) from Shakespeare, singing, &c.

THEATRICAL.—The Minstrels at the Willamette Theatre are still drawing good houses. On Saturday night, Mr. Beatty, a favorite actor, volunteered his services to Mr. Dennison, on which occasion the Theatre was well patronized.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was as fine a day as could be wished for at this season of the year. We doubt if any climate in the world could beat this.

THE RIVER.—The Willamette river was falling rapidly last night at eight o'clock. The water had fallen ten feet and eight inches below the high water mark.

THE FERRY.—The ferry boat, which has been laid up for some time, resumed her usual trips across the river yesterday.

DANIEL GRY, a Californian, charged with manslaughter, was arrested on the 7th, at Yreka, and put in jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Oregon.

VICTORIA papers of the 9th say that Oregon stock is advancing, on account of the floods in that State.

PARTING OF SCOTT AND MCCLELLAN.—When Gen. Scott left Washington for New York, after he was received with much honor, the following scene occurred at the cars:

Gen. McClellan, at the head of his staff, retired to an inner room occupied by Gen. Scott and removing his hat from his head, knelt before the veteran chief whom he had succeeded.

Gen. Scott, sitting, from inability to rise, extended his hand to his successor, and they clasped for some minutes with hands clasped. In this position, Gen. Scott drawing McClellan nearer to him, said:

"General, do not allow yourself to be embarrassed by men who do not comprehend the true question. Carry out your own views, act upon your own judgment, and you will conquer, and the Government will be vindicated. God bless you."

The young chieftain's only reply was:

"I thank you, General, and will not forget your counsel. May you be restored to health and live to see your prophecy fulfilled. God be with you. Farewell."

FERNANDINA.—A recent dispatch from St. Louis said that the last naval expedition was bound for the port of Fernandina. The first important seaport after leaving Savannah is Fernandina, near the entrance of St. Mary's river, the boundary between Georgia and Florida. The entrance is by a channel between Cumberland and Amelia Islands, with fourteen feet of water on the bar. Fernandina is connected by a railway one hundred and thirty-five miles in length, running across the State, with Cedar Keys, on the Gulf of Mexico, and is thus an important commercial point. It was proposed to make this road part of a great communication between New York and New Orleans.

Upon the arrival of the mail from San Francisco at Honolulu, with the intelligence of the death in battle of Senator Baker from Oregon, the U. S. Commissioner, Hon. Col. Dryer, displayed his flag at half-mast through the day, as a token of his country's loss of one so gifted and so brave.

☞ Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrœa, or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 635 California street, San Francisco. aug30tm

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changis of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please inclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. F W Huett, of the Ohio State Journal, recently escorted a Southern lady to Columbus, Ky, the headquarters of Generals Pillow and Polk. He has written a long letter giving his experience. We extract the following

INTERVIEW WITH GENERAL POLK

We found Gen. Polk in much more comfortable quarters than Gen. Pillow, and rather more exclusive in his company. He is a fine large, gray headed man, rather amiable looking but distant. My case was presented, and permission readily granted. He began to deplore this war, and wondered what our people in the North intended by it. He thought they ought to stop it at once, as they could gain nothing by its continuance, etc. I asked him how it would settle.

Gen. Polk—"By giving us all that belongs to us."

"What belongs to you?"

Gen. Polk—"All that has always been acknowledged ours."

"Do you want Missouri?"

Gen. Polk—"Yes, that is ours undoubtedly."

"Do you want Kentucky?"

Gen. Polk—"Of course, the Ohio river has always been considered the line."

"But Kentucky don't want you!"

Gen. Polk—"We must have her."

"You want all of Virginia."

Gen. Polk—"Of course."

"You must have Maryland?"

Gen. Polk—"Most certainly."

"What will you do with Washington?"

Gen. Polk—"Any trouble about Washington arises from its unfortunate position. We don't want it; remove it, if you want it; but Maryland is ours."

"Well, General, you will never get Washington!"

Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, ... Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the face, Pains in the back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the United States, ... I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and perfect cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemy to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. ... and the treatment not cause death ... and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, ... the dread catalogue of human diseases ... a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having received their health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The facts thus set forth imperatively command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, deems it his duty to those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings can be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of inconsiderate passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon me in the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of several physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks, and in some instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unspeakable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease was principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life of which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

[L. S.] Signed JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June ... 1856

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not gained my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called to see you ... with my constitution, as I thought, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do enough to ease the pain in my back and head, and sleep ... so that I would not get excited and tremble all over. ... that you know what I complained of, you can judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches ... and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stopping of those emissions, which you said ... I can hardly tell you which is the greater, my joy or my surprise, for except not having my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, ... If you think anybody will be benefitted ... you may put this letter in the ... I have ... faithfully yours

THOMAS HAYNES
